Objective:

NIT Graduate School of Management organized seminar on “Women Empowerment – Women's day Celebration”- with the noble objective to create awareness about the legal perspective of women issues and its relevance to human rights. This program's aim is to improve young people's mind set about working women and their Issues and challenges.

Participation:

Dr. Shradha Wilfred speaker was a guest speaker for the seminar and two Faculty Members along with 57 Students of NIT GSM were participated in the seminar

Agenda:

To create awareness about the legal perspective of women issues and its relevance to human rights, keeping in view the growing imbalance in the man-woman ratio, we have to emphasize focusing on celebrating and welcoming women empowerment. To get rid of vicious social customs of dowry system responsible for killing of girl child, the status of women shall have to be enhanced

Outcome:

NIT Graduate School of Management organized a Guest Lecture on, “Women Empowerment – Women's day Celebration”. The International Women's Day was celebrated at NIT Graduate School of Management 8 th March, 2021. The purpose of celebrating Women's Day is – To raise awareness about the status and dignity of women among the students. An essay writing competition on Women's day was been conducted in morning and many of the students had participated for that. It was interesting to know that boys have also participated for it. After the completion of essay writing competition, a short program was conducted in the multipurpose hall of our college. At the beginning of program our respected Director Dr. Mukesh Patil. gave a short speech on Women's day. Then some fun events were designed to make the boys realize the women's daily household work and of course to have fun for all

Guest of Honour , Dr. Shradha Wilfred gave a dynamic inaugural address , She said that audience has almost equal number of female students, and that is matter of pride. She thus felt that it was necessary that each and every woman is made aware about the legal provisions available for them. She emphasized that the society, which is patriarchal in nature requires a
