About NIT Graduate School of Management

Language and Communication Skills Development Program

- English is a language of opportunities and it plays a vital role in securing desirable employment. Accuracy and fluency in the use of language are very essential.
- Communication Skill development also plays important role in career development.
- Programme enables the students to expedite the process of improving learning & communication development skill with more emphasis on LSRW (Learning, Speaking, Reading, and Writing) leading to desirable employability.
- Programme intends to develop the confidence level of students and it would motivate them to use their language & communication skills outside the classroom as well.
- Programme provides an authentic language & communication skills learning experience to students .
- To complement classroom lectures, audio-visual sessions are conducted as a part of the teaching-learning Experience.

Objectives of Language and Communication Skills Development Programme

- To enhance the proficiency of the students in all four primary skills (LSRW) of English .
- To emphasize the importance of English as a medium of learning apart from academic subjects.
- To facilitate the students to shed fear and anxiety while using English and to overcome their mother tongue influence & improve their communication skills.
- To equip students with confidence to undergo placement training programs through round the year practice in small presentations, group discussions, debates and mock interviews.
- To enhance spoken skills through various programs.
- To develop interactive approach in learning the second language.
