Date: 24th January 2023.

Time: 11.00 AM.

Beneficiaries: MBA Ist Year.

Faculty Coordinator: Miss. Pallavi Shekhar, Miss. Mukta Marathe & Miss Vaishali Gode

Objective: The main objective of the programme was to create awareness among the students about the importance of girl child.

Report: - Awareness Program on 'Save Girl Child; Educate Girl Child'

The NSS unit of NIT-GSM organized an awareness program on the occasion of 'National Girl child day' on 'Save Girl Child; Educate Girl Child' on the 24th of January, 2023 from 11 A.M to 02 P.M. The bigger objective was to discourage female foeticide, a cancer for the society. There was a huge enthusiasm among the faculty members and the students for the programme. A well renowned and eminent personality, Advocate Smt. Nanda Parate, who works as a social activist was the chief guest. She was warmly welcomed by the Director of NIT-GSM, Dr. Mukesh Patil .

The chief guest expressed her thoughts passionately on the topic and shared concern; she also quoted the constitutional provisions for the safety and security of girls. She further elaborated that a girl is the one who plays many roles in our lives. She is our mother, our sister, our wife, our grandmother and many more. She is the cause of life, because of her we are in this world. Before a sister, a mother, a wife, she is a girl and if you are saving a girl you are saving your world.

Further, she explained that discrimination against girls in India has been going on since ages now. Even today, there are several sections of the Indian society where the girl child is treated as a liability. While several privileges are given to the boys; girls are often restricted to the confines of house and given very little or no opportunities to learn and grow in life. She emphasized the role of education is extremely important here and goes a long way in empowering women. And the process of education has to begin early in life. More and more girl children need to be sent to school provided quality and holistic education.

Advocate Smt. Nanda Parate was felicitated by presenting her a memento as a token of gratitude for sparing her precious time for the occasion. Miss. Pallavi Shekhar, Miss. Mukta Marathe & Miss Vaishali Gode and non-faculty staff members worked efficiently to make the session a grand success. The session concluded with the vote of thanks given by Dr. Nilesh Yemde. About 151 students were present on this occasion.

Outcome of the Event:

By the end of the programme the students were able to:

- Understand the importance of girl child.
